

Celebrating ten years of the dedication of the Novosaratovka Theological Seminary

September 2008 - Ten year anniversary celebration of the dedication of the Theological Seminary in Novosaratovka. The schedule of events will include:

September 26 - Discussion of the results of the Seminary's ministry for the past year and plans for future development. Meetings with current students.

September 27 - A round-table discussion on questions of theological education, focusing on the real educational needs of pastors in our church. Our seminary graduates will share their perspective. Also, a celebratory worship service and reception will be held.

September 28 - Worship at a congregation in St. Petersburg.