

Installation of the New President

During the conference on education in the ELCROS there was an installation of the new president of the Theological Seminary Rev. GODEKE VON BREMEN. After the service Archbishop of ELCROS GEORG KRETSCHMAR and the Theological Seminary invited guests to a reception. Greetings on the occasion of the installation came from the Theological Seminary of the Church of Ingria in Koltushi, from the president of the local Catholic Theological Seminary on behalf of the Catholic side, from Father VLADIMIR FYODOROV on behalf of the Orthodox side and others. Together with our General Synod president ALEXANDER PASTOR, ELCROS bishops of and Ingrian bishop AARE KUGAPI greeted the new president. Students and graduates made their contribution with their musical performance and firework in the end of this wonderful evening.
