

02.11.05 - Reformation Day

The Evangelical Lutheran Church traditionally celebrates Reformation Day on the 31st of October. This year the Seminary decided not to hold its own service, but to accept the invitation of St. Peter Lutheran church on Nevskii Prospekt to organize and lead worship there, in the most important church for Russian Lutherans.

Anton Tikhomirov led the liturgy and read the sermon, while 1st year student Olesja Chernjavskaja was lector. The service was very simple from a liturgical point of view, and this allowed certain elements that were particularly important for the reformation, such as the sermon and hymn singing, to be particularly emphasized.
